

PURE Solutions Global, LLC Appoints Antony Papageorgiou New Chief Operating Officer

April 5th 2011, Pulaski, NY - Antony Papageorgiou, a Cornell Hotel School alumnus and veteran of the hospitality industry, has been appointed as the new Chief Operating Officer at PURE Global Solutions, LLC in Pulaski, NY. Mr. Papageorgiou has held several key leadership positions in hotel operations, branding and corporate training/development in the luxury and ultra premium cruise industry before starting a new career in indoor air and surface purification in 2008.

"I am very excited to join the PURE Solutions Global team at a time when all of our efforts are directed toward strengthening our support to our existing distributors and broadening our presence worldwide," stated Mr. Papageorgiou. "This award-winning, patented, allergy-friendly PURE Room program has been very well received internationally in many countries such as India, Australia and Greece. This dynamic global expansion will continue in Europe, South America, China and the Middle East."

Vince Lobdell, Chairman of the Board for PURE Solutions Global, added "Antony brings a wealth of operations, customer service and branding experience to our organization during this phase of global expansion. I am certain that his leadership skills and passion for improving people's indoor experience will help us optimize our operation and bring PURE Rooms to many more exciting new markets."

PURE is the leader in allergy-friendly rooms for the hospitality industry. Recently they've began to take a look at other markets where the allergy-friendly indoor environment concept fits well, most recently launching vertical market offerings into the spa, daycare, and health clinic markets.

PURE Solutions Global, LLC is based in Pulaski, NY, about 40 minutes north of Syracuse in Upstate New York. For more information about PURE and its worldwide distribution, visit www.pureroom.com.
